

TGI Friday's Copycat Sex on the Beach

Wonderful drinks are a specialty of TGI Friday's, and Sex on the Beach is one of their most popular offerings. It is said that a bartender named Ted working at Confetti's Bar in Florida created this drink. He named it Sex on the Beach because beaches and sex are the two things that attract spring breakers the most. This drink has refreshing fruit flavors to mesmerize you. One of the best things about homemade drinks is that you don't have to worry about IDs and driving. Just sip and enjoy!
